

Precursor's Narvey Attends WWDC 2011!

Contact: Alex Narvey

Precursor Systems is pleased to announce that, for the fourth year in a row, company founder Alex Narvey will be attending the Apple World Wide Developer Conference 2011 in San Francisco (June 6-10).

WWDC is Apple's annual programmers conclave where programmers, developers and i.t. professionals can immerse themselves in dozens of information-rich sessions and labs where Apple engineers go in-depth on the innovative technologies that power iPhone OS, Mac OS X, and Mac OS X Server. This year's edition will focus on the new Mac OS X 10.7 Lion and iOS 5.

The 2011 edition of WWDC sold out in only eight hours and will host approximately 5,000 attendees and over 1,000 Apple engineers.

Precursor Systems was founded in March 1994 by Alex Narvey to provide support for computer-based professionals in the Publishing, Printing, Prepress, Digital Imaging, Audio and Video industries.
